Verse 2:

Met her in a dixie diner,
Put on the southern hospitality.
I can still smell her sweet molasses
Running all over me.
We started rollin' like the river,
Like a twister tearin' through the town.
We were tongue-tied, satisfied an' southern fried,
As she drove this ol' dixie down.

She's black coffee etc.

Verse 2:

To really love a woman, let her hold you
Till you know how she needs to be touched.
You've gotta breathe her, really taste her,
Till you can feel her in your blood.
And when you can see your unborn children in her eyes,
You know you really love a woman.

When you love a woman
You tell her that she's really wanted.
When you love a woman
You tell her that she's the one.
She needs somebody to tell her
That you'll always be together
So tell me have you ever really,
Really really loved a woman.

Verse 3:

Instrumental

Then when you find yourself
Lyin' helpless in her arms,
You know you really love a woman.

When you love a woman etc.
